

The Ground is Moving: Standing on Truth in a Relative World

	SOCIAL JUSTICE	Biblical View
Ultimate Authority	subjective/experience	Isaiah 46:9, 2Tim3:16
Nature of man	social construct / group	Genesis 1:27 2:22-25
Fundamental Problem	oppression / hegemony	Romans 3:23
Solution to Problem	deconstruction/revolution	John 14:6 Colossians 3:10 Gospel of Reconciliation Eph 4:31

Radical social justice theory, which dominates higher education, is the belief that society is divided into social identity groups by categories such as class, race and gender; that any unfair distribution of goods among these groups is oppression; and that oppression can only - and must - be removed by a coalition of marginalized identity groups working to radically transform politics, society, and culture to eliminate privilege.

David Randall NAS 2019

Do not lie to one another, since you laid aside the old self with it's evil practices, and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the One who created him-a renewal in which there is no distinction between Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and freeman, but Christ is all, and in all.

Colossians 3:9-11
